The Americanization of Carmen

BEFORE

AFTER

Miss Carmen Amendola-Massiotti came to us on August 29, 1966 and during a year's short time, enabled BHS to become acquainted with the sweetest and friendliest South American yet. Our thanks to you, Carmen, for enriching a little part of everyone's life. Hasta la vista.

During the year, Carmen set up a display for Boone High students to learn more about her country.

International Week 1967

Tesfaye Desleyn from Ethiopia.

Jaime Rojas from Chile.

Chrysanthi Souli
from Greece.

Christianne Bauer
from Germany.

Mr. Bernard Mergen spoke to us on
"The World Image of the United States."

Aluisto Pontual from Brazil.

Ida Jo Cleveland presented an interesting talk about her year in New Zealand.

BHS students became acquainted with the AFS students at an informal buzz session.

Mr. Ferguson seems interested in what Tesfaye has to say.

OUR GENERATION
HAS BEEN GIVEN THE WORKS...

ALL OF THE WORLD'S PROBLEMS ARE BEING SHOVED AT US....

WHAT DO YOU THINK WE SHOULD DO?

"STICK THE NEXT GENERATION..."

SPECIAL EVENTS

1966 Homecoming was a big success. The homecoming events began with the traditional bonfire at Goeppinger Field. The five queen candidates were introduced, the student body cheered our Toreadors on to victory, and Mo (Morris) Kelley spoke.

The annual homecoming assembly took place in the high school auditorium where the entire student body watched Christy Munson crowned 1966 Homecoming Queen. Stanley Redeker was the speaker, and Paul Clark was the master of ceremonies.

The homecoming tea, put on by the homemaking department, took place following the assembly. The faculty was invited as well as alumni, parents of the candidates, and past queens.

The Toreadors beat Ft. Dodge, St. Edmonds, 49-7 to make this homecoming even better.

The homecoming dance, following the game, topped off the festivities with Morrie Powers and band playing. Upon receiving the most votes in the most beautiful legs contest, "Topper" Lyness was recognized during intermission for having the most beautiful legs on the football team.

Christy Munson, Linda Swain, Linda Byers, Lynne Carper, and Chris Lindmark ride to the Bonfire in convertibles where each is introduced.

The bonfire is lighted and Mo (Morris) Kelley is the speaker.

The homecoming float depicting Charlie Brown is presented at half time.

The Queen and her court were excited.

One of the touchdowns contributing to the 49-7 victory for the Toreadors against St. Edmonds.

Queen Chris and her attendants enjoy the game with ringside seats.

1966

Homecoming

Chris Munson was escorted by Rick Neely. When the time came for the queen to be crowned, Tom Ferry placed the crown on Chris's head. Roses were presented to the queen by Don Wilhite, and she was escorted to the throne.

July 24, 1967

Arvid K. Stock
Boone Junior-Senior High School
621 Crawford Street
Boone, Iowa 50036

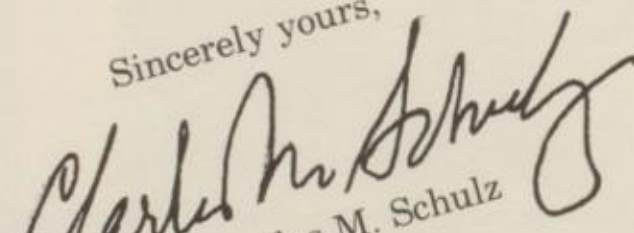

Dear Mr. Stock:

You certainly may have my permission to use any of the Peanuts characters you wish in your forthcoming yearbook.

I am flattered that you should wish to do so.

Kindest regards.

Sincerely yours,

Charles M. Schulz

"Would You Believe . . ."

the theme of this yearbook is American heritage? Some things, taken almost for granted, become a uniquely American part of our heritage. They tell more about us than public buildings, government documents, or picture galleries of noble Americans. They tell what we were like, what we thought, and how we re-acted to our society. They are the comic strips.

One generation had Krazy Kat and the Katzenjammer Kids; another, Buck Rogers; a third, Superman. Today "Peanuts" is probably most typical and will be best remembered by the seniors.

Seniors will also recognize the catch-phrase at the top of this page—a running gag-line from a popular television comedian. It, too, will go down in history with "23 skiddoo", "Oh, you kid!", and the classic insult, "Your mother wears combat boots."

1967 was the year of the mini-skirt, the Combo, go-go, and the teenybopper. As Charlie Brown would say, "Bleah."

The editors sincerely thank Charles M. Schulz for permission to borrow from "Peanuts."

Our wish for the '67 Seniors: May your kite never land in Snoopy's dish, and may you have a dog house of your own to lie on some day.
